Dear Brother Wilson:

I was pleasantly surprised to receive your letter today. I am happy that the brethren at Coopertown would like for me to come and preach a gospel meeting for them. I am booking this meeting to begin the fourth Sunday in July, 1965. It is too far in advance at this time to make a firm request but if I am anywhere in this area I must ask that the meeting begin on Sunday night, the fourth Sunday in July and continue through the next full Sunday, 1965. If this is not at all acceptable with the brethren there, you may let me know but otherwise we will let the matter stand where it is until the date comes closer.

Please give the brethren there my deepest regards.
I look forward to our association together.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
